THREE AGAINST SWANSEA ENDS GOAL FAMINE

Os ended their run of four games without goals in emphatic fashion last Saturday with a 3-0 win over fellow promotion seekers Swansea City.

On a blustery afternoon on which ball control was always difficult, Orient enjoyed the boost of scoring as the half hour approached while playing against the worst of the wind.

Midfielder Steve Baker, the club's acquisition from Southampton on transfer deadline day 48 hours earlier, had a major part in this breakthrough. For it was his shot that took a deflection from Swansea defender Dudley Lewis and the ball found its way past goalkeeper Peter Guthrie into City's bottom corner.

Two minutes into the second half Os went further ahead when they exploited City's attempt to operate the offside trap in spectacular fashion.

As Swansea's back four pressed up, so Orient's strikers alertly fell back with them while the midfield calculated their advance in pursuit of a monster, wind assisted clearance from goalkeeper Peter Wells.

Guthrie, left totally exposed, was committed to leaving his penalty area but totally failed to connect with his attempt at a fly-kick and this left Orient's Alan Comfort with the ultimate open goal, in that there was not a single visitor goalside of Swansea's 18 yard line.

For Comfort, it was also consolation for suffering a broken nose in a first half collision.

It was a night to remember for Kevin Godfrey on the last occasion that Bolton Wanderers were here. Kevin scored the one hat-trick of his career to date in Orient's 4-3 victory. (Photo: Phil Carpenter).

Contrasting sequels for Paul Shinnars, nearest camera, and former Orient defender Colin Foster when Os met Nottingham Forest on this ground in the FA Cup on January 30.

For Shinnars a calf muscle injury that developed during that match kept him out of the game for almost two months. While for Foster and his Forest team-mates they have progressed to a much-awaited semi-final with mighty Liverpool next weekend. (Photo: Phil Carpenter).

Comfort and Kevin Hales, who was also treated at one stage for a lower leg injury, played their part in laying on the third goal for Ian Juryeff, who scored with a header, 19 minutes from the end.

Swansea manager Terry Yorath, while disappointed at his club's second defeat at Leyton Stadium this season — Os beat City 2-0 in the FA Cup in December — acknowledged that Orient had been worth their success.

Mr Yorath went along with the growing view that the second and third promotion places will only be decided on the

AUSTIN ROVER

From the Manager's Desk

Firstly, my thanks to all Orient supporters who were here for last Saturday's match with Swansea. You undoubtedly played a significant part in the team ending what had been a disappointing run of results.

There have been occasions during the first half hour of other matches when anxiety in the stands and on the terraces has communicated itself to the players on the pitch and had an unsettling effect upon our players.

Against Swansea there seemed to be a totally different and welcome atmosphere. Particularly during those crucial early stages when we had a battle on our hands against a team every bit as eager for a result as ourselves.

Our first goal was a cue for the sort of vocal backing we need at all home games and for the rest of the match the support really was tremendous.

Possibly having two players, Steve Baker and Mark Stimson, making their home debuts helped give everything a lift.

Both did very well for us, although at the end of the day it was an impressive all round team performance that ensured us of three welcome points.

Earlier that week, we had been beaten 2-0 at Burnley.

That evening we had the opportunities to have scored first — although the chances that presented themselves were nothing like as simple as suggested in press reports appearing in the south — but from half-time onwards the possibility of our salvaging anything from the match steadily receded, and Burnley earned themselves three points which established them as one of the many clubs currently eyeing the Third Division.

The sad events at Newport County could come to play their part in determining which clubs fill which positions at the other end of the table.

Indications earlier this week were that Newport would, after all, see the season out. It would certainly be better for the game that they do so, although at a personal guess they will be hard pressed to win another League match.

Happenings at Somerton Park are something over which clubs like today's visitors, Bolton Wanderers, and ourselves have no control whatsoever, so at three o'clock this afternoon we will both be totally pre-occupied with the points at stake here in East London.

Bolton have one of the division's most impressive home records and gained a victory over us by the only goal at Burden Park back in November.

That afternoon, during the first half in particular, we played as well as we have on any opposition ground this season, and I recall feeling desperately sorry for our side that they had nothing to show from such a performance.

That game of course also served to demonstrate Bolton's resilience, and it comes to me as no surprise that they continue to be very much involved in the promotion struggle.

Today's game and, indeed, Monday's at Darlington can be categorised as a six pointer, and it goes without saying that support of the sort we enjoyed last Saturday can again prove invaluable.

Looking beyond the League season as such, perhaps I might take this opportunity to draw early attention to a charity match taking place at Chigwell Police Sports Club on Sunday, June 5.

The match itself will be part of a full-scale fete in aid of the Noonans Syndrome Society, a recently established charity.

This programme will carry fuller details nearer the occasion, and in the meantime Orient supporters might care to note the date.

last day of the season.

Swansea City, like ourselves and other promotion hopefuls, have an understandable interest in developments at Newport County, where last week the bottom of the table club made no secret of the fact that they might not see the season out.

Saturday's fixture at Wrexham was, in the event, fulfilled and that left them with ten matches to play.

Newport's remaining commitments are Carlisle, Peterborough, Scarborough, Tranmere, Rochdale, Wolves at home and Cardiff, Torquay, Bolton and Darlington away.

The situation at the top of the Fourth Division table recompiled after last weekend's programme on the basis of Newport's record being expunged became:

	P	Pts
Wolves	37	68
Cardiff City	36	60
Scunthorpe United	35	59
Darlington	36	59
Torquay United	33	58
Bolton	36	57
Swansea	37	57
Leyton Orient	36	55
Burnley	36	54
Hartlepool	36	54

Torquay were due to play Swansea Tuesday.

The transfer of Steve Baker from Southampton last week materialised as the deadline for movements approached, and for manager Frank Clark it was a case of his prolonged pursuit of the player finally being rewarded.

Orient's manager had earlier left an offer "on Southampton's table" for a player who has appeared in more than 100 first team games for the Saints.

Steve, 25, began his Football League career as an apprentice at The Dell and had his First Division debut during 1980-81 season.

Since then he has been a regular member of Southampton's senior squad, apart from 1983-84 when he had a spell on loan with Burnley and played ten League games for the Lancashire club.

He played 19 First Division games last season, has made periodic appearances this term, but has on numerous occasions found himself as substitute.

Goal — and broken nose — for Alan!

Our next away League match is at Darlington on Easter Monday.

Like our May Bank Holiday Monday game at Tranmere, the Darlington match kicks off at 3.00 p.m.

Admission prices at Darlington for adults and juniors/senior citizens respectively are:

Stand seats £4/£2.50p; paddock £3.50p/£2; ground: £2.80p/£1.50p.

Leyton Orient Supporters' Club have organised the customary coach transport to this match, departing at 7.45 a.m.

The adult fare will be £14 and that for juniors and senior citizens £12.

The customary surcharge of £2 adults and £1 other categories will be made upon travellers who are not members of the supporters' club.

Any Orient supporters making their way by road to Darlington are advised to follow the A1M and A66M to the A66 which leads into Darlington town centre. Take fourth exit from roundabout into Victoria Road for the Feethams ground.

Easter weekend Fourth Division fixtures. Results relate to past three corresponding meetings of clubs, where applicable.

Good Friday: Cambridge v Darlington (-, -, -), Colchester v Halifax (3-1, 3-1, 1-3), Crewe v Hereford (1-2, 2-0, 0-3).

Saturday: Burnley v Wolves (2-5, -, -), Exeter v Cardiff (0-0, -, -), Hartlepool v Peterborough (1-2, 2-1, 0-3), Leyton Orient v Bolton (-, -, 4-3), Newport v Carlisle (1-1, -, -), Scarborough v Scunthorpe (-, -, -), Swansea v Rochdale (1-0, -, -), Torquay v Stockport (0-0, 4-3, 0-0), Wrexham v Tranmere (1-1, 1-1, 4-0).

Monday: Bolton v Burnley (-, -, 1-3), Cardiff v Newport (-, 1-1, -), Carlisle v Wrexham (-, -, -), Darlington v Leyton Orient (-, -, -), Halifax v Scarborough (-, -, -), Hereford v Torquay (2-2, 4-1, 1-0), Peterborough v Swansea (1-1, -, -), Rochdale v Cambridge (2-0, 2-1, -), Scunthorpe v Crewe (3-1, 3-1, 2-3), Stockport v Exeter (0-0, 1-1, 1-0), Tranmere v Hartlepool (1-1, 4-2, 1-2), Wolves v Colchester (2-0, -, -).

May a Bolton deadline day reinforcement

BOLTON WANDERERS, DARLINGTON and CARLISLE UNITED — Orient's next three opponents in the run-in to the end of the season — all made additions to their playing strengths on transfer deadline day last week.

Bolton reinforced their defensive resources by taking former England under-21 cap Andy May on loan from Second Division Huddersfield.

Darlington engaged STOCKPORT COUNTY defender Jimmy Willis, who has already played against Orient this season for the Cheshire club in League and FA Cup games.

Carlisle, who have shuffled their resources throughout the season in a bid to climb clear of the foot of the table, signed former Sunderland striker Gary Rowell from Dundee as deadline day approached, and then moved again to take on Barnsley defender Mark Ogley.

Last weekend SWANSEA CITY gave a debut to Peter Bodak, newly signed from CREWE ALEXANDRA after themselves selling striker Colin Pascoe to Third Division promotion seekers Sunderland for a reported £70,000.

Two of the busiest clubs in deadline week were CAMBRIDGE UNITED and bottom of the table NEWPORT COUNTY.

Cambridge sold goalkeeper Keith Branagan — who has twice kept clean sheets against Orient with accomplished performances this season — to Second Division Millwall for a reported £100,000 fee. Then in turn they moved for Norwich midfielder Phil Chapple and Southampton's Ian Hamilton and Gary Bull, a midfield man and striker respectively.

The departures of Simeon Hodson to West Bromwich Albion, player-coach Roger Gibbins to TORQUAY UNITED and Gary Brook to SCARBOROUGH from Newport meant that half the side that recently shared a 0-0 draw with Orient at Somerton Park have since left a club who were last week reported to be on the verge of going out of business.

Other moves in and from the Fourth Division included — SCARBOROUGH goalkeeper Jim McDonagh, 35, once with today's visitors Bolton who has been on loan for the past two months at Huddersfield — to First Division Charlton.

Leeds United striker Russell Doig to HARTLEPOOL for £10,000; Paul Sanderson CARDIFF striker to Walsall; Paul Kendall Scarborough defender to HALIFAX; Les Robinson Stockport midfielder to DONCASTER.

Luton striker Sean Farrell and Manchester City Eric Nixon joined COLCHESTER and TRANMERE ROVERS on loan respectively.

Unlike 1980-81 season, a colour change is not nowadays necessary when Bolton Wanderers visit Leyton Stadium. Our picture from the April meeting of the clubs, on a Sunday morning in the Second Division, features Os' defender Bill Roffey in our playing strip of the era, all white with a red trim. Wanderers opponent Peter Nicholson is garbed in red shirt, blue shorts.

TODAY'S VISITORS B

Bolton Wanderers, a club who were founder members of the Football League, last season found themselves involved in the first ever play-offs to determine promotion or relegation.

In Wanderers' case, their fate was soon settled in that as the Third Division club required to contest the new sudden death tournament they were beaten by Aldershot — who went on to achieve promotion by defeating Wolves — at the "Semi-final" stage.

Since dropping into Division Four for the first time in their history, they have throughout season 1987-88 figured prominently among the clubs close on the heels of the chasing pack — and indeed their 1-0 win over Orient at Burnden Park back in November lifted them into third place.

Their bid for promotion has largely had its origin in an impressive home record, and they will obviously be eager to add to their away points tally at Orient's expense this afternoon.

Wanderers' record on opposition grounds in League games this season is:-

Won 2-0 at Carlisle, 3-0 at Hereford, 1-0 at Newport, 4-0 at Peterborough, 2-1 at Stockport;

Drew 0-0 at Halifax, 0-0 at Hartlepool, 2-2 at Rochdale, 1-1 at Scunthorpe;

Lost 1-2 at Burnley, 0-3 at Colchester, 1-2 at Crewe, 0-1 at Darlington, 0-4 at Scarborough, 0-1 at Swansea, 1-2 at Torquay, 0-2 at Tranmere, 0-4 at Wolverhampton.

Our opponents' 48 Fourth Division goals have been credited to — Thomas 16, Morgan 6, Brookman 6, Thompson 5, Came 4, Henshaw 2, Savage 2, Elliott 2, opponents 2, Chandler, Darby, Storer 1 each.

DAVID FELGATE (Goalkeeper) 28. Born Blaenau Ffestiniog. Now in second spell with Wanderers, having commenced career at Burnden Park. Had loan stays with Rochdale, Bradford City and Crewe before moving to Lincoln. Assisted Cardiff and Grimsby on loan before moving to Humber side club on a full contract. A £16,000 fee took a keeper who has gained under-21 and full caps with Wales back to Burnden Park.

DEREK SCOTT (Defender) 30. Born Gateshead. England schoolboy who was apprenticed at Burnley, for whom he made his League debut during season 1974-75. Versatile player who moved to Burnden Park for a £30,000 fee in June, 1985.

BOB SAVAGE (Defender/midfield) 28. Born Liverpool. Was apprenticed at Anfield, but had to wait until joining Wrexham, initially on loan, for his League debut. Later assisted Stoke and Bournemouth before joining Wanderers.

DAVE SUTTON (Defender) 31. Born Tarleton. Began career as Plymouth apprentice, figuring in two Argyle promotion sides before moving to Huddersfield Town. Joined Bolton for £12,000 in summer of 1985.

MARK CAME (Defender) 26. Born Exeter. Played for Cheshire League club Winsford United before linking up with Wanderers in April, 1984.

JULIAN DARBY (Defender) 20. Born Bolton. Former England Schools international who made League debut during season 1985-86.

MARK WINSTANLEY (Defender) 20. Born St. Helens. A YTS graduate who made his League debut during 1985-86 season.

DEAN CROMBIE (Defender) 30. Born Lincoln. Joined his local League club from Rushton Sports. Was subsequently a regular choice with Grimsby until joining Bolton on a free transfer last close season.

STEVE THOMPSON (Midfield) 23. Born Oldham. Graduate of the club's youth ranks who is their penalty specialist.

JEFF CHANDLER (Midfield) 28. Born Hammersmith. Blackpool apprentice who went on to gain caps for Republic of Ireland. Moved on to Leeds, then had initial stay at Burnden Park before joining Derby. Rejoined Bolton for £30,000 fee last summer.

NICKY BROOKMAN (Midfield) Born Manchester. Has progressed from club's youth ranks, making debut this season.

TREVOR MORGAN (Forward) 31. Born Forest Gate. Graduated to League football with Bournemouth from our neighbours Leytonstone/Ilford. His career has since taken him to Mansfield, back to Bournemouth and thence to Bristol City, Exeter City and Bristol Rovers who received £30,000 on a further move to his present club.

JOHN THOMAS (Forward) 29. Born Wednesbury. Was loaned by his first club Everton to both Tranmere and Halifax before he joined Bolton first time round. Established himself as a regular goalscorer with Chester, Lincoln and Preston before rejoining Wanderers. Scored 21 League goals for Preston's promotion winning side of last season. Again high among the Fourth Division scorers this season.

STUART STORER (Forward) 21. Born Harborough. Began League career with Mansfield. Moved on to Birmingham and subsequently Everton from whom he joined Wanderers.

TIME TO VOTE FOR YOUR PLAYER OF THE YEAR

PLAYER OF THE YEAR DINNER/DANCE

This year's Player of the Year Dinner Dance will be held at Chingford Assembly Hall on Wednesday, May 4th, commencing at 7.30 pm. Tickets are priced at £12.00 and are available from the Commercial Dept. from Monday 28th March.

Please book early to avoid disappointment.

PLAYER OF THE YEAR VOTING FORM

1ST CHOICE _____

2ND CHOICE _____

NAME _____

All votes must be returned to the Commercial Department or Supporters Club by Thursday 21st April.

Occupants of seats in the central area of the Main Stand are reminded that smoking is not permitted in this part of the Stadium. The restriction has been imposed by our Local Authority.

LOTTERY SELLERS NEEDED

Agents are required in all areas to sell our new Treasure Island Lottery Tickets.

Excellent commission, plus many other benefits. Interested? Then telephone Frank Woolf on 539-2223 during office hours.

YOUR CHANCE TO ADVERTISE

We have vacancies for perimeter board advertising on the main stand touchline. Display now and pay for it after June 30th.

Cost will include signwriting and preparation.

Telephone Frank Woolf on 539 2223 during office hours.

It's Player of the Year time again and your votes are invited to determine the recipient for 1987-88. A pictorial recap on a past presentation night sees Kevin Hales receive wifely congratulations from Elaine after he had topped the 1984-85 poll. (Photo: Mike Childs).

Os ON VIDEO

A reminder that all Leyton Orient's home matches continue to be available on video from Charles Dunford, 17-23 Knighton Lane, Buckhurst Hill.

They are available for both VHS and Betamax systems and are priced at £18.50p with an additional £1 for packing and postage.

Please note these recordings are of entire matches.

THIS AFTERNOON'S REFEREE

Alan Seville is a toolmaker from Birmingham who is married and has two teenage daughters and a young son. He was appointed to the Football League referees list in 1978, having had his first matches on the line four years earlier.

His refereeing career began in the Birmingham Works League in 1962 with appointments in the West Midlands Regional League his next step up the ladder.

He has been on the line for a UEFA Cup tie and the Everton-Liverpool Charity Shield match of 1986. He has refereed a Birmingham Senior Cup Final and an Alliance Premier League Cup final between Enfield and Weymouth.

His other main sporting interest is crown green bowls.

DEVELOPMENT PLANS MOVE AHEAD

Preliminary costings for an enlargement of the club are now being carried out and we hope that in the next few weeks we shall be able to make a positive statement that the project will go ahead.

Since announcing our plans for this development possibility, we have received a number of offers of financial help from members and we shortly expect to put forward a sponsorship/donation package – incorporating a longer term membership and other features – which we hope many Members will favourably respond to.

Whilst the bulk of the construction costs would be found from within the Club we shall require further funds for furnishing and fitting out, and in order to complete the whole project in the shortest possible time – rather than proceeding in stages as and when funds permit – we will be looking to Club Members to assist us with this aspect of the development.

More details soon.

FRIDAY CLUB NIGHT

We remind members that Club Night has now been resumed and we again look forward to seeing our regular 'Friday Nighters' and, hopefully, some of our newer members at the Club.

Record Quiz and all your favourite music from A.G. SOUNDS.

NEW CLUB BADGE

As there appears to be a growing interest among members for a Supporters Club Badge we are able to advise that a newly designed version is in the course of production.

The badge will be available as from the start of the 1988/89 season to coincide with the club's 10th Anniversary.

NEXT MATCH HERE CARLISLE UNITED

Barclays League Division Four

Saturday, April 9

Kick-off 3.00 p.m.

FIVE, TEN, FIFTEEN SEASONS AGO

1982-83

Five years after being associated with the most successful FA Cup run in the club's history — Orient reach the semi-final for the first time — former manager Jimmy Bloomfield dies in April, 1983 at the age of 49 following a lengthy illness.

During his earlier term as manager the former Arsenal and Birmingham player had steered the club to the 1970 Third Division championship.

On Easter Saturday Os are beaten 2-0 at Bournemouth, where a family bereavement prevents George Best playing for the home side.

Trevor Morgan — a possible starter for Bolton in this afternoon's match — scores Bournemouth's first goal, his 11th of the season, from Nigel Spackman's cross.

John Beck settles the issue with a further goal for AFC 90 seconds later.

Manager Ken Knighton is sufficiently satisfied with the Orient performance to retain the same side to face Millwall on the Monday.

Millwall establish a 3-0 lead before Os fight back with goals from John Cornwell and Keith Houchen, but it is not enough to salvage a result from a derby witnessed by a best of season crowd of 4,345.

1977-78

An appearance in the FA Cup Final at Wembley eludes Os when they are beaten 3-0 by Arsenal in the semi-final at Stamford Bridge.

Os never recover from conceding two early goals credited to Malcolm Macdonald, but both of which take crucial deflections from unlucky defenders.

The attendance is 49,698.

Earlier in the week Orient play a previously postponed League fixture with Blackburn Rovers and share a 0-0 draw at Leyton Stadium.

Orient make a significant change for the Second Division game with Derek Clarke coming into the side in place of Kevin Godfrey, who had filled the number seven shirt ever since John Chiedozie suffered a broken leg in the January.

Clarke keeps his place at Stamford Bridge, which means that the only player with present day associations to appear in a semi-final of the club is Tunji Banjo. He comes on as substitute in the closing minutes for Nigel Gray.

1972-73

Orient on Saturday, April 7, 1973 defeat Nottingham Forest 3-0 at Leyton Stadium in front of 6,373 spectators.

The goals all come in the first half from Phil Hoadley, Gerry Queen and Mick Bullock.

While Forest are able to field Liam O'Kane — nowadays Brian Clough's right hand man at Forest — Orient achieve their win despite being without the likes of Peter Bennett, Barrie Fairbrother, Ian Bowyer and Tom Walley through injury.

In addition, defender Bobby Arber is helped off with a leg injury during the closing stages.
